

Michele Reid, MD, is a community psychiatrist and Vice President /Chief Operating Officer for CNS Healthcare, a Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinic (CCBHC) operating in Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb Counties in Michigan. Dr. Reid was promoted to this position after serving five years as Chief Medical Officer and five years as Medical Director. Dr. Reid has been instrumental in the growth of CNS Healthcare, including securing Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) grants for Primary and Behavioral Health Care Integration, Zero Suicide, and CCBHC, as well as facilitating a merger with Northeast Integrated Health, another CCBHC, which doubled the size of CNS Healthcare's operations.

Dr. Reid has spent her entire career working in Community Mental Health settings. She is passionate about expanding access to integrated health care services for underserved populations, children, adolescents, adults, and older adults with mental disorders. Dr. Reid is also a Clinical Assistant Professor at Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan, in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Neurosciences, where she has taught the community mental health didactic rotation for many years.

Dr. Reid is a Distinguished Life Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association, is currently serving her second term as APA Trustee-At- Large and is a member of the APA Finance and Budget Committee. She has served in several leadership roles at the APA, including the BOT Governance Work Group, member of the Presidential Task Force to Address Structural Racism Throughout Psychiatry, Michigan representative to the Assembly (Area 4), member of the Council on Minority Mental Health and Health Disparities, Chair of the Committee of Black Psychiatrists, Representative to the Board of Trustees and as an APA/NIMH Fellow.

Additionally, she has served in leadership roles in other professional organizations, including Michigan Psychiatric Society as President and Councilor and the American College of Psychiatrists, where she is a fellow and the Vice-Chair of the Committee on Diversity and Respectful Inclusion. She has previously chaired the Dean Award Committee and a Committee on Creativity and Education Awards member. She is currently a member of the SAMHSA Center for Mental Health Services National Advisory Council (2022-2026).

Dr. Reid is active in the community and has served on numerous boards of nonprofits, including Hospice of Michigan, Northeast Integrated Health, Detroit Central City, and the Alliance for Mental Health Services. She is a frequent presenter on various mental health topics in partnership with community organizations, including the Merrill Palmer Institute, NAMI Michigan, school districts, faith-based organizations, fraternities and sororities, and business associations to educate the public and local communities about mental disorders, recovery and reducing stigma.
